“As a Levine Scholar I have been awarded an amazing opportunity to grow, thrive and be challenged in ways like never before.

- James Smith

Summer Enrichment

Each summer, Levine Scholars participate in enrichment experiences which aim to align their programs of study and out-of-class activities with their strengths and values, and to give Scholars an opportunity to put their ideas into practice in a range of environments.

National Outdoor Leadership School

1st Summer
Outdoor wilderness expedition focused on leadership and team building

Charlotte Nonprofit Internship

2nd Summer
Intern with a nonprofit in Charlotte and learn the challenges and fortitude required to succeed as a nonprofit

Pre-Professional Internship

3rd Summer
Spend five weeks interning with a nonprofit organization to gain career and leadership experience

International Experience

4th Summer
Spend time abroad with an agency, business, program or government, to gain a broader definition of community

How to Become a Levine Scholar

High school counselors play an integral role identifying outstanding candidates for the Levine Scholarship. Seniors must receive a counselor's nomination before they can apply for the Levine Scholarship.
